

ETHNIC BREAKDOWN

Of the 96,100 deceased organ donors since 1988, 72,440 were white, 9,425

Whites make up nearly 50 percent of the transplant waiting list, which consists of 90,266 people.

There are 14,561 Hispanics on the organ waiting list and 9,425 Hispanics donated organs since 1988.

Of the 67,086 kidney transplant patients on the waiting list, 23,285 are black, while total blacks on the waiting list was more than 26,000. Whites comprised 26,789 of those kidney patients and Hispanics were 11,009.

Source: Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network